HOUSE APPROVES MOVE TO BALLOT ON BONUS TODAY

Advocates of Cash Payment Win Battle for Im- mediate Consideration of Controversial Meas- ure by 226 to 169.

SENATE DECISION REMAINS IN DOUBT

Pat Harrison Takes Up Cudgel Against Plan To Give $2,400,000,000 to Service Men.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Responding to the pleas of 20,000 war veterans camped at the capital, the house today overrode its party leaders and agreed to vote tomorrow on immediate payment of the $2,400,000,000 soldiers' bonus certificates.

While hundreds of veterans packed the galleries and many others loitered about the corridors in the hope of winning admittance, the house decided, 215 to 175, to give formal consideration to the legislation demanded by the bedraggled "army" of former service men.

By 225 to 169 it then agreed to vote tomorrow, after four hours of debate, on the Patman resolution for immediate payment. House passage assured, but senate leaders claimed a vote—more than a majority of 60 members—against the legislation. President Hoover has promised veto if it reaches the White House.

The democratic and republican house leaders were opposed to both resolutions. Representative Snell, republican leader and the probable permanent chairman of the party's national convention, was paired in opposition. Representative Raiten, who was present, voted in the negative.

No Party Lines Split.

No party lines were split asunder in the roll call, although there was preponderance of democrats for consideration and a majority of republicans against.

Voting for consideration were 60 republicans, 163 democrats and one republican-labor member. Opposing were 133 republicans.

The complicated procedure necessary to get the bonus proposal before the house was highly technical and as a consequence, the only demonstration which followed the vote was scattered applause from the members themselves when the victory for bonus proponents was announced.

As the house was voting, the other branch of congress heard Senator Harrison, the ranking democrat on the finance committee, plead for rejection of the legislation.

Harrison told the senate he did not care if "a million soldiers come to a city of Washington and encamp about the capital and fill these corridors, they could not influence me." "I shall not vote for any immediate payment of the bonus at this time, regardless of the effect on my political career," he shouted.

The senate had under consideration resolution to create a permanent committee on veterans' legislation, sponsored by Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, it failed to reach a vote before time for its consideration expired.

The house decision was expected, that it did not lessen the rejoicing in the veterans' encampments scattered throughout the city.

The vote was the one bright spot in two days of rain which left the

2 Wall Street Firms Sued for Bond Losses

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—Summons were served today upon Lee, Higginson & Co. and the Guaranty company, of New York, who participated in the original sale of $500,000,000 International Match Corporation bonds in this country, to see if either or both are liable for losses suffered by investors.

The action was brought by Mrs. Frances Brannon, of New York city, through the law firm of House, Holtbush & McCloskey.

Mrs. Brannon claims she purchased a $5,000 par value ten year 5 per cent convertible gold debenture bond of the International Match Corporation on January 27, 1931, paying $4,800. She claims that the original sum advanced her was returned to her by the bankers.

The action, which will serve as a test case involving the entire $500,000,000 flotation and whether the underwriting houses can be forced to return that amount to the buyers, was instituted in the supreme court of New York.

Abyssinian Emperor Recaptures Deposed Foe

ADDIS ABABA, Abyssinia, June 13.—(AP)—Lijl Jassu, the former emperor of Abyssinia, who escaped last week from the captivity in which Emperor Haile Selassie had kept him for 15 years, has been recaptured.

An official statement issued today by the Abyssinian foreign office said Lijl Jassu had fled into the hills of the Gojjam region pursued by Selassie's troops. The army surrounded him and he was captured in a gorge north of the Blue Nile. Today, the statement said, he was brought back and handed over to the commanding officer of the emperor's troops.

Accused of Bungling, New Jersey Constabulary Is Backed by Governor Moore.

ALPINE, N. J., June 13.—(AP)—Repercussions, state and international, in the case today as the state police investigation of the Lindbergh kidnapping and murder reached an apparent dead-end and Governor Moore declared his support of the defense of the police handling of the case.

An investigation of the police tactics in the case was being conducted by a virtual certainty by Senator Emerson L. Richards, republican leader, who asserted the case "has been slaughtered by a poor English servant girl."

Meanwhile, in London, labor members of parliament, aroused by the suicide of the English waitress, Violet Savage, the girl who was in the virtual certainty by Senator Emerson L. Richards, republican leader, who asserted the case "has been slaughtered by a poor English servant girl."

Keynote and Organization Occupy G.O.P. Today With Important Fireworks Slated To Come Later

BY KIRKE SIMPSON.

CHICAGO, June 13.—(AP)—The setting in which the next president of the United States will be nominated by the G.O.P. today is a place of honor high above the platform and is repeated again and again in the festoons of bunting around the lower gallery rail.

It was an impressive sight as evening fell tonight and the great hall cleared of hurrying workmen to leave vacant its orderly rows of red-velvet chairs for delegates and alternates with state standards sprouting on tall poles to mark each state group.

Just two weeks later the democratic hosts will come trooping in to select the nominee of their choice.

And over the proceedings of both the national and state conventions will loom only the likeness of George Washington, the first president. His picture alone holds a place of honor high above the platform and is repeated again and again in the festoons of bunting around the lower gallery rail.

The republican national convention of 1932 will open its doors to throngs of delegates and alternates with state standards sprouting on tall poles to mark each state group.

Whatever disagreements are in store, tomorrow probably will bring forth none. The day is devoted by traditional schedule to the routine of organization, from the time that Chairman Fess, of the national committee, pounds for order at 11 a. m. central daylight time.

President Hoover probably will be nominated Thursday.

On that day it is, too, that the vice presidential agitation will come to center. Charles Curtis will have the field practically to himself, it appears, since what sentiment there is against him remains unorganized.

The high spot of the morning's session will be the keynote speech by

COX ASSAILS PLEA IN VETS' BEHALF

Georgia Solon Reminds Congress of Obedience to Demands of Duty.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—In the face of a ringing denunciation by Representative E. E. Cox, of Camilla, of the tactics employed by bonus marchers now in Washington, the Georgia delegation divided almost equally to discharge the ways and means committee from further consideration of the bonus bill.

Representatives Wright, of Newnan; Mobley, of Forsyth; Vinson, of Milledgeville; Lankford, of Douglas; and Larsen, of Dublin, voted to discharge the committee while Representatives Barker, of Statesboro; Crisp, of Americus; Ranspuck, of Atlanta; Tarver, of Dalton; Wood, of Canton; and Cox voted in the negative.

The state's vote on adoption of the rule making bonus legislation the special order of business tomorrow was the same as the vote to discharge the committee.

Representative Cox, a member of the rules committee, was the only member of the Georgia delegation to speak for or against the bonus.

"I find in this motion to discharge," he said, "the application of blind force to constitutional government that is little less than revolution. It is in obedience to the demands of duty which Wordsworth once called the stern daughter of the voice of God that I now take the floor, not on my shirt of fire and in my feeble way try to stay this rising tide of fear that threatens to wash out the courage of men and endanger the safety of the republic."

Mr. Cox charged that the bonus armies encamped on the banks of the Potomac were an invitation to the house to destroy the integrity of its own creatures, two of its most important committees, "and produce a rent in the cloak of its parliamentary robes."

Mrs. Bertha Field, Marietta, New State Committeewoman

G. O. P. Delegation Displaces Mamie Williams, Who Decides To Take Fight for Recognition Further.

BY W. F. CALDWELL.

CHICAGO, June 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Bertha M. Field, of Marietta, was selected tonight as the republican national committeewoman from Georgia to succeed Mamie Williams, negro, of Savannah. The nomination was made unanimously by the Georgia delegation in caucus.

Mrs. Field is the widow of Captain Field, of the United States navy, a kinsman of the Marshall Field family of Chicago. A native of Pennsylvania, she has lived in Georgia for 28 years.

James W. Arnold, national committeeman, in placing Mrs. Field in nomination, said she was born a republican and is enthusiastic over the "building up party program" now under way in the state.

Arnold was re-elected national committeeman and the delegation decided to vote as a unit except on the subject of prohibition submission, on which each delegate will vote individually.

Joseph T. Rose was named Georgia's member of the committee on resolutions, which will handle the prohibition suggestions. He was named chairman of the delegation.

R. L. Farr expressed the opinion that the "prohibition resubmission" and the delegation decided this was a moral question and should not come under the unit rule.

The following additional committee selections were made:

Credentials, Wilson Williams; permanent organization, Lovvorn; committee on rules, R. J. Davis; to notify the presidential nominee, Dr. Harris; to notify the vice presidential nominee, Tumlin; delegation vice chairman, Farr; secretary, Kitchens; assistants, Moss and Chastain.

Arnold was given an ovation when his name was placed in nomination by Rose. There were many seconds of the nomination, Dr. Harris describing him as "a real commander."

Hager, Rose and Arnold praised Mrs. Field as an ideal national committeewoman.

Shot by Watchman, Atlantan Near Death

Dispute over a stick of firewood which he claims he picked up on the Atlanta, Birmingham & Coast railway tracks near his home may prove fatal to Arthur Mullins, 27, of 607 Jones avenue, N. W., who late Monday night was shot and critically wounded by John Walker, negro nightwatchman for the O. A. Smith Company, Inc., roofing contractors. Walker has been an employee of the company 33 years.

Mullins, shot through the abdomen, was taken to Grady hospital by neighbors. He regained consciousness and told police he had picked up a piece of cordwood as he walked along the railroad tracks. The nightwatchman, however, contended the wood was stolen from a pile in the yard of the concern for which he worked. An argument over its possession resulted when he demanded that it be put down. Walker said, and he claimed he fired twice when Mullins advanced on him. The watchman is being held pending outcome of Mullins' injuries.

Means Found Guilty Of Kidnap Swindle

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Gaston B. Means tonight was found guilty in the District of Columbia supreme court of larceny of $104,000 from Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean in a fantastic plan to recover the kidnapped Lindbergh baby.

Two hours after it had been given the case, the jury of 11 men and one woman returned verdicts of guilty on two counts of larceny of the $100,000 ransom money and of $4,000 expense money.

Verdicts of not guilty on two counts of embezzlement of the same sums were returned.

Defense counsel has four days, beginning tomorrow, to make a motion for a new trial. If this is not made, Justice Proctor will then set a date for sentence.

The maximum penalties possible on each of the larceny counts is ten years imprisonment, and, or, $1,000 fine.

VICTIM OF BANDIT DIES AT HOSPITAL

G. C. Moon Succumbs After 5 Days; Youth Held for Murder.

G. C. Moon, 47, of 494 Fourteenth street, N. W., who was shot down by a bandit as he was about to enter a Luckie street restaurant, died late Monday afternoon at Grady hospital after lingering near death for nearly five days. Moon was struck by one bullet fired at close range.

In addition to Moon, W. D. Hamilton, 23, of 1009 Euclid avenue, N. E., night manager of the cafe, was shot and critically wounded by the bandit, who gave his name as Wallace Hughes, 18, of Atlanta and West Palm Beach. Hamilton's condition was reported as critical at the time Moon succumbed. Both men were shot in the abdomen.

Moon was a salesman for a sausage company, and was on the point of entering the cafe to take orders when Hughes shot his way to freedom, later to be captured on a downtown building roof. The body was sent to the establishment of A. C. Hemperley & Son for funeral arrangements.

Hughes, indicted for robbery by the grand jury Friday, is being held in Fulton county jail. A bill of indictment charging murder will be presented to the next session of the grand jury, it was said at police headquarters following the death of Moon. Hughes' case is in the jurisdiction of the county and no murder charge can be placed against him by city police, it was explained.

One man who was arrested a few minutes after the holdup and shootings was released and fully exonerated Monday by Major James L. Key. Holding that the arrest was a police error of judgment, Mayor Key ordered the release of J. T. Harris Jr., who was taken from his hotel room by officers seeking the bandit, Harris, arrested on mistaken identity, was held incommunicado 24 hours.

Britten Demands List Of Free-Riding Pastors

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—A resolution asking the interstate commerce commission to make public a list of clergymen who use passes to ride trains to the Chicago political conventions was introduced today by Representative Britten, republican, Illinois.

In a statement he said his purpose was "to show a great number of passes are used by ministers who only preach the gospel of the Anti-Saloon League."

"They are followers of Bishop James Cannon Jr., of the Methodist church, South, who for years have been on the prohibition pay rolls."

PRESIDENT STIRS DEMOCRATIC RE IN BUDGET CRISIS

Hoover Criticized in Sen- ate for Economy Bill's Failure To Balance Fed- eral Budget.

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—A new drive to balance the budget, marked by democratic criticism of President Hoover, overshadowed the unemployment relief controversy today in congress and made the day of final adjournment a matter of speculation.

Senate democrats blamed the president for failure of the economy bill to balance the budget and demanded that he submit definite recommendations for plugging a hole of undetermined size in the budget-balancing program.

Congressional leaders disagreed not only on the amount of additional economies or revenue needed, but on the method for getting them. The house and senate conferees went to work on the much maligned economy bill in the hope of solving at least a part of the problem.

There was talk on both sides of the capitol of a supplemental revenue bill. Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire, predicted it would have to come out of other leaders were confident sufficient economies could be found to make that unnecessary.

Relief Action Halted.

Relief legislation was at a virtual standstill, the house sending the senate a $300,000,000 bill to the banking committee with a promise of immediate consideration.

Leaders on both sides of the capitol, impatient to conclude the session, still hoped for adjournment at the end of this week, but thought more seriously of the latter part of next week.

Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, first called to the attention of the senate the week-end conferences at the White House out of which emerged statements of the president's intention to submit an additional $150,000,000 or $200,000,000 must be found to balance the budget.

He submitted a resolution saying the president had announced the budget balancing program was $200,000,000 short and asking him for specific recommendations.

Robinson requested immediate consideration, but Senator Reed, of Pennsylvania, an administration spokesman, objected, saying the president had made no such announcement.

Out of Balance.

Reed agreed, however, that as a result of the senate's reductions in the economy bill it would not balance the budget. He did not deny the figures, but merely the statement that the president had announced them.

Robinson charged that at least part of the reduction in the economy bill brought about by substitution of the government furlough plan in the place of straight pay cuts had been sought by President Hoover himself.

Later, Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, said that if the statement was not made by the president.

LEADERS DECLARE THEY WILL WAIT FOR INSTRUCTIONS

Washington Dispatches Say President Will Go No Further Wet Than Plank Calling for Ex- pression by the People.

FESS STILL HOPES TO PLACATE ALL

Chance for Getting Re- peal Plank in Platform Draft Is Small, Assuring Bitter Fight on Floor.

CHICAGO, June 13.—(AP)—Administration leaders drafting the troublesome prohibition plank returned late tonight from a secret conference prepared to put the issue up to President Hoover. They indicated they were hopeful of an early solution.

HOOPER WILL NOT GO BEYOND RESUBMISSION

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—President Hoover has been converted to the idea of a plank in the republican platform resubmitting the question of the eighteenth amendment to a vote of the people, but he is firmly opposed to a plank recommending the repeal of prohibition, it was learned tonight.

The United Press was advised on unimpeachable authority in administration circles that the president will run for re-election on a resubmission plank if one is adopted at Chicago.

The president feels, however, it is stated, that the fight now rests between advocates of a repeal of the amendment and those favoring resubmission of the question.

In event that the group advocating a definite proposal for repeal gains unexpected strength in the next 24 hours, the president may be expected to come out flatly in opposition to such a drastic move.

BY ROBERT ST. JOHN.

CHICAGO, June 13.—(AP)—The roll of drums and the blare of bands resounded through Chicago streets tonight as wets and drys came together in the mightiest prohibition tussle that the republican party has seen since the dry laws were put upon the statute books.

Demonstrations, parades and mass meetings were the outward manifestations of the dispute but its full bit-terness was revealed in the quiet of numerous conferences that wet and dry leaders held behind closed doors.

With restless increasing evidence, the Hoover chiefs strove on into the late hours in a vain endeavor to settle on a prohibition plank that would placate all. Giving way little by little, the president's position of weighing a plan whereby a substitute for the dry amendment would be recommended.

Repeat advocates emphasized re-

Akron Is Moored At Parris Island

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C., June 13.—(AP)—Completing its trans-continental flight from Sunnyvale, Cal., without mishap, the navy's giant dirigible Akron arrived here today and tied up at the marine station mooring mast for the night.

A light rain was falling when the big silver-bulldog craft sailed over the marine barracks at 6:15 p. m., eastward bound.

It circled the station, and with only two of its eight motors running drifted slowly toward the mooring mast. A ground crew of 200 men, directed by Lieutenant Charles W. Roland, who arrived three days ago from San Francisco, met the Akron at the mooring mast.

The queen of the air was safely moored. By this time the rain had increased to a steady downpour.

Democrats Pledged to Stand United Behind Party's Ultimate Nominee

BY GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Declaring that the nominee of the party for the presidency will be loyally supported, "whatever the result of the convention," former Governor Alfred E. Smith today joined with Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, and 59 other leading democratic figures in a "united appeal" for completing the party's $1,500,000 victory fund by the date of the national convention, June 27.

Aside from the purpose of the appeal, the presence of former Governor Smith's name on the list was a subject of interest since it serves to dispel reports that he intended to

WILLIAM VINCENT, RAIL OFFICIAL, DIES

Comptroller of A. & W. P.
Was Prominent in Transportation Circles.

William Holmes Vincent, for many years one of the leading railroad officials in the south, died early Monday night at his residence on Club drive, near Brookhaven, following a short illness. He was 57 years old, and for eight years had been comptroller of the Atlanta & West Point railroad, the Western Railroad of Alabama and Georgia railroad.

A native of Charleston, S. C., Mr. Vincent was widely known in the southern states as an authority on railroad accounting and as an efficient expert.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at the St. Luke Episcopal church, of which he had been a member since his residence in Atlanta. Dr. Moore Walker, the rector, will officiate at the rites, and interment will be in the family lot in West View cemetery. H. M. Patterson & Son are in charge of arrangements. Associates in the railroad industry will form honorary escorts and serve as pallbearers at the services.

Mr. Vincent first came to Atlanta in 1900. He entered the railroad business as a young man, and was in the employ of the department of the old South Carolina railroad. His entire business career was closely associated with the auditing departments of railroad companies.

Following his graduation at the Porter Military Academy, in Charleston, where he was an honor graduate, he served for several years in the accounting department of the A. & W. P. railroad under the late William Healey, in Charleston and in Augusta, Ga., and then, in 1900, came to Atlanta. Later he was auditor of the Georgia railroad in Augusta from 1913 until 1924, when he returned to Atlanta as comptroller of A. & W. P. and the Western of Alabama and Georgia railroads.

In addition to his duties as comptroller, Mr. Vincent was auditor of the Atlanta Terminal Company. For several years, prior to 1900, he was connected with the Southern Railway Company after that company had absorbed the old S. F. & G. railroad, of Charleston.

Mr. Vincent's recognition as an expert railroad accountant was indicated in his election for several consecutive years as chairman of the Southeastern Accounting conference, an organization of accountants of all southern railroads.

The son of the late Howard Evelyn Vincent and Gertrude Wynne Vincent, one of the most prominent South Carolina families, Mr. Vincent was widely known in that state before removing to Atlanta. He also was well known in Augusta during the period of his residence in that city, and was a member of the Augusta Country club, the Rotary club, and was a charter member of the Acacia Lodge, F. & A. M., of that city. He was a member of the Railway Accounting Officers association.

In 1902 Mr. Vincent was married to the former Miss Amy Duncan, of New York state. The marriage ceremony was performed in St. Luke's church here, and both Mr. and Mrs. Vincent had been active in its affairs since.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. C. Woolf and Miss Catherine Vincent, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Durrie B. Hardin, wife of the Rev. D. B. Hardin, of Prince Frederick, Md., who will assist Dr. Walker at the funeral services; a brother, J. E. Vincent, of Washington, D. C.; and three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Waring and Miss Gertrude Vincent of McClellanville, S. C., and Mrs. George Robinson, of Coral Gables, Fla.

RESOLUTIONS HIT DEMOCRATIC BODY

State Group Asked To Set Up New Committee
in Fulton.

Resolutions asking the rules committee of the state democratic committee to set up an executive committee to act for the party in Fulton county "until a new executive committee can be duly selected at the September primary in accordance with your rules" were adopted Monday night at a meeting of democrats seeking to invalidate the county executive committee elected last March.

Approximately 30 persons, meeting in the Ansley roof garden, elect Robert P. McLarty, chairman; Brown Tyler, D. A. McWhorter, George Finch and McWhorter Milner as a committee to present the resolutions to the state rules committee at its Macon meeting Wednesday.

Speeches scoring "secrecy" and "perpetuation in office" of county executive committees were made by McLarty, Tyler and Representative William G. McRae, candidate for solicitor-general. McLarty charged that voters and candidates for committee membership were not given proper notice of the March election. Tyler asserted that "defiance" by George L. Bell, vice chairman of the Fulton executive committee, of the state committee "puts the committee in the attitude of bolters and we have not now any legal party machinery in the county."

The resolutions petition the rules committee to promulgate rules allowing candidates for executive committee of Fulton county to qualify in the September primary up until some date to be determined by the state body. "In event of a refusal by the

The delegation decided to go in a body from state headquarters to the convention opening tomorrow.

The administration-rejected negro faction headed by Mamie Williams, will carry to the credentials committee of the national convention its fight for recognition as the "regular" delegation from Georgia.

The delegation has yet to decide what stand it will take on the prohibition issue, which today was more than ever the outstanding question among arriving delegates.

Both the opposing delegations from Georgia are committed to the support of President Hoover, whose renomination is conceded.

With the exception of 1920, Georgia delegates to the republican national convention for many years have voted from the first ballot for the man who was the party nominee for president.

Georgia will cast its 18 votes in the

A subcommittee of the state rules committee will report to the entire body that the March election of committeemen was illegal and invalid, it was said.

MRS. FIELD TO STUDY DUTIES BEFORE ACCEPTING POST BY MARK TEMPLE

MARIETTA, Ga., June 13.—(P)—That Mrs. Bertha M. Field wanted to know more about the duties of a national committeewoman before accepting the nomination tendered her by the Georgia republican delegation in Chicago was to be expected, many of her friends said tonight.

It was the consensus that Mrs. Field always acted only after having given any subject thorough consideration and thought.

Mrs. Field's friends said they knew of no important part she had played in the political field, but they knew she had always been very much interested in the welfare of the republican party.

She is a member of the Marietta Presbyterian church and the Woman's Club of Marietta, and has been a leader in each organization. She, likewise, has taken an active part in educational work in Cobb county, being officially connected with the schools of the city.

Her husband, the late Lieutenant Commander Horace A. Field, graduated from the United States Naval Academy and died here about two years ago. He served in the World War, retiring shortly afterward. He was a cousin of Marshall Field, prominent Chicagoan.

Mrs. Field is 48 years old, a daughter of James Davis Mudrack, of Wellsboro, Pa. She has made her home here for about 25 years. To Captain and Mrs. Field three children were born—Dudley Field, of Washington, D. C.; Bassford Field, Marietta, and Miss Rosamond Field, student at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va. Her two sons are graduates of Georgia Tech.

Do you inhale?

"Let sleeping dogs lie"

Why should smokers accept this old-fashioned notion of the cigarette trade?

BY this time you must be pretty well convinced of the fact that other cigarettes do not like to talk about inhaling.

And yet—this subject—so "untouchable" in cigarette advertising—is very close to your welfare! For you do inhale—we all do—knowingly or unknowingly, every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

"Let sleeping dogs lie" may be the cigarette trade's answer to us! But what's their answer to you? Do you inhale? Lucky Strike does not avoid this vital question. It meets the issue fairly and squarely—because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Lucky Strike's famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

BOARD TO STUDY SCHOOL SLASHES

Absorption of Cut in Revenue Will Be Discussed at Meeting Today.

Absorption of a $104,000 cut in school revenue will be considered at a meeting of the Atlanta board of education at 3 o'clock this afternoon in council chamber following a meeting of the current expenditures committee called for 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

William A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, and T. W. Clift, business manager of the schools, Monday afternoon went in a conference with other executives of the department in an effort to trim the board of education budget so as to allow for the loss in funds.

Superintendent Sutton late Monday afternoon reported that some progress had been made but that "our budget already has been cut to the limit and it is extremely difficult to find places where we can further eliminate expenditures." Sutton said, however, that "we will have a report for the current expenditures committee at its meeting Tuesday. It is hard to estimate in advance of the meeting just how much of a saving we can make." Commissioner E. R. Sweat, chairman of the current expenditures committee, said that "the committee intends that the schools shall live within the income," but he added that he would not forecast "what the entire board will do about it."

The $104,000 in school revenue was dropped off in the June finance sheet.

If you want to be eased from pain in three days and relieved of above ailments in a short time, get Von's Tablets from any Jacobs Drug Store, or write Atlanta Von Co., 700 Walton Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for full information.—(adv.)

Middle Georgia Sees

Akron En Route Home

Middle Georgia saw a view of the dirigible Akron Monday as the craft passed over the state on its way from Sunnyvale, Cal., to its home station at Lakehurst, N. J. Columbus, Macon and other Georgia cities were on its route passed to watch the ship pass overhead. It headed almost straight across the central part of the state, bound for Parris Island, S. C., where it was to spend the night.

Any idea Lieutenant Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, the Akron's skipper, may have had regarding a visit to Atlanta was cast aside when reports of bad weather in this area were radioed to him as his ship neared the Georgia line.

recently passed by city council and signed by Mayor James L. Key, Sutton said that he and his co-workers were going through the school budget, item by item, in an attempt to learn where cuts could be made without sacrificing efficiency, and that the absolute minimum necessary for operation was being set up for each item.

Mrs. Julia O'Keefe Nelson, chairman of the rules committee, said that her committee will submit to the board a resolution instructing Sutton to warn the teachers of the city schools that Oglethorpe University degrees are recognized by the board of education.

BONDS FORFEITED

BY ALLEGED 'REDS'

The rearrest of the six alleged communists whose bonds were ordered forfeited Monday on failure to make an appearance when their cases were called in Fulton superior court has been ordered by Assistant Solicitor John Hudson, who Monday afternoon issued orders for the drawing of warrants for their arrest.

The six were slated to appear when a hearing was scheduled for Monday morning on demurrers to indictments charging all six with attempting to incite to insurrection. The case was called before Judge G. H. Howard and as none of the defendants were present and their attorneys did not appear their bonds were ordered forfeited.

All six were under bonds of $3,000 each, while one, Henry Storey, was under $1,000 bond. The bonds were posted in each instance by the National Surety Company of New York, save in the case of Ann Burlack, who posted a cash bond of $3,000.

The defendants are: Ann Burlack, Mary Dalton, M. H. Powers, Joe Carr, Gilmer Brady and Henry Storey. The offense on which they are indicted carries the death penalty upon conviction.

Campaign of Twitty

Will Open June 30

Laurens county friends of Peter S. Twitty, state game and fish commissioner, counted plans Monday for launching the Twitty candidacy for governor at a big district rally to be held in Dublin on June 30. Twitty will make the principal address at that time.

Congressional, judicial, legislative and county candidates from the counties in the sixth district will be invited. If congress is adjourned, Carl Vinson, incumbent, and J. R. Earle Camp, of Dublin, will attend.

This week two candidates will outline platforms. Thomas W. Hardwick, a former governor who is again seeking the executive chair, will begin his speaking tour at Albany Thursday. Governor Richard B. Russell, opponent of Representative Charles R. Crisp for the unexpired term in the senate of the late William J. Harris, will make his inaugural speech from an Atlanta radio station Friday at 6:30 o'clock.

Eugene Talmadge, one of the 10 candidates, opened correspondence headquarters in a building adjacent to the Capitol Monday.

H. R. Edwards, another of the candidates, had to cancel a speaking engagement at Irwinton Monday because of a severe cold.

Poole and Holcombe

To Be Examined Today

Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant Monday ordered 20 more officers of the police department to report this afternoon to the city physician for physical examinations to determine their fitness to continue as members of the department.

The order Monday included Chief of Detectives A. Lamar Poole, Captain A. J. Holcombe and Captain George Butler.

Others who will be examined at 3 o'clock this afternoon in Room 4, city hall, are Detectives J. H. Doyal and J. C. Simmons and Patrolmen W. O. Bullard, W. E. Chatham, J. H. Flury, R. L. Ganssart, S. A. Greer, C. M. Hamby, J. H. McGahee, B. E. Moon, J. H. Norris, J. R. Palmer, W. F. Pittman, L. A. Rivers, J. F. Welch, W. H. Swends and J. L. Whitley. Forty men already have been examined but no reports or recommendations have, as yet, been turned over to Chief Sturdivant.

COL. W. B. GRAHAM

WILL BE HONORED BY 326TH INFANTRY

Colonel William B. Graham, executive officer of the 326th infantry, will be the honor guest at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at a dinner given by the members of the 326th Infantry Club and the members of the fifth congressional district chapter, Reserve Officers' Association, U. S. A. The affair, given on the eve of Colonel Graham's departure for a tour of foreign duty, will be held at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Major General Edward King, commanding general of the fourth corps area; Brigadier General George H. Estes, commander of Fort McPherson; Colonel T. A. Roberts, chief of staff; Colonel S. F. Dallam and Major William McK. Spann will be among the guests in addition to regular reserve officers. Captain Willis Everett of the 326th infantry, will act as toastmaster. Colonel Graham has been on duty in Atlanta for the last 14 months. He came here from Chicago.

BAPTISTS WILL HAVE

BARBECUE SATURDAY

Members of the Second Baptist church will attend an "old-fashioned" basket picnic and barbecue in the agriculture building at Lakewood park at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Captains and lieutenants of the men's service league and officers and chairmen of the business women's league will act as a reception committee. Invitations have been issued to the entire membership, and acceptances are being mailed to Colonel F. J. Paxon, P. O. Box 1729, who is in charge of affairs. The guest list closes Wednesday. Colonel Paxon stated, urging that all acceptances be in by that time, as reservations must be made at once. It was erroneously stated in Sunday's Constitution that Davison-Paxon Company would have a picnic at Lakewood park Saturday.

Franklin Explains

Action on Slaton

Grady hospital internes Monday were exonerated of any negligence in the case of Ivan Slaton, 25-year-old Cartersville resident, who was sent from the hospital to police station on a drunk charge Saturday night and later found to have received a slight fracture of the skull as the result of having been struck by an automobile on Ponce de Leon avenue.

Six X-ray pictures were made of Slaton's injury, it was revealed, four of which showed a blurred indication of a lineal skull fracture. Mr. Franklin said reports were to the effect that the patient was intoxicated and unruly and that in as much as the hospital had no accommodations for psychopathic or boisterous patients the man was sent to police station, with instructions that he be watched and returned if his condition became worse.

EXCHANGE CLUBS OPEN SAVANNAH MEETING

Civic Organizations Urged To Help Citizens Regain Business Confidence.

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 13.—(P)—It's up to the civic organizations of Georgia and of the United States to keep each community from losing its head until better times return, declared H. Cliff Hatcher, Wayneboro, in his president's address this morning before members and guests of the Georgia Exchange Clubs, assembled for the seventh annual convention at the Hotel Savannah, being held today and tomorrow.

In those words he expressed the theme of his talk and of the convention. The biggest factor in bringing back normal conditions, explained the president, will be the community clubs. "The people as a whole have lost their heads following the economic depression and with it have lost their fortunes in so many cases it will become the duty of city clubs to try to help citizens about them to regain their confidence and self-control," Mr. Hatcher declared.

REV. HARBIN SPEAKS TO LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

Joseph Crayler, of Dalton, Ga., president of the North Georgia Epworth League, is heading the assembly, which is being held for the purpose of preparing leaders for the coming year.

Instructors for the Epworth League gathering are the Rev. Harbin, R. L. Ramsey, principal of the Dalton high school; Atlanta, the Rev. Nat. G. Long, instructor of Bible at Emory university; Oxford, the Rev. Frank Pim, of the Dalton high school; and the Rev. Frank Tate, of Athens, and the Rev. V. V. Veach, of Athens.

Election of officers for the league will be held Thursday.

LAXTON WOMAN HELD ON CHARGE OF ARSON

CLAXTON, Ga., June 13.—(P)—Mrs. T. M. McCane, widow of the late Dr. McCane, was placed in jail Saturday, charged with arson following the finding of an indictment against her several weeks ago.

Mrs. McCane was brought back from Canal Point, Fla., by Sheriff Lawrence. Her son by a former marriage, Morrison Rushing, had already been jailed on the same charge.

The specific charge involves the burning of the Claxton pharmacy in January, 1931. Dr. McCane was ill the time and died the following month.

It is charged Mrs. McCane and her son burned the business to collect $1000 insurance, which was paid.

Nobody on Earth Ever Suffered More Than I," Declares Mrs. Davis

When the new scientific treatment, yeast vitamins, copper and iron, for Thor's Vitamin Compound, was needed in the drug stores only a few weeks ago few people in Atlanta had heard of it; now, hundreds of thousands of residents all over the country are taking the revolutionary new treatment and giving it their wholehearted endorsement out of pure gratitude for the remarkable benefits received from its use. Among these Mrs. J. A. Davis, prominent Inman resident, who lives at 227 Harvard Ave., N. E., Mrs. Davis said: "My improvement is simply amazing. I believe I have suffered more stomach trouble than anybody on earth and up until I got Thor's Vitamin Compound, my case just seemed to be beyond the reach of medicine.

"There was so much acid and toxic in my system that once I began to express the agony I went through in my indigestion, I dreaded to swallow a bite of food and was so nervous and weak I could hardly walk across the room. For months on end did not know what it was to get a full night's sleep. I was forced to take a strong purge every night for

FUNERAL RITES HELD FOR RENDLER D. ADAMS

Victim of Electric Wire Laid to Final Rest in LaGrange.

LA GRANGE, Ga., June 13.—Funeral services for Rendar D. Adams, 38, an electrician, who met death Friday afternoon when he severed a live wire with his pliers while rewiring a home here, were held Monday morning at the First Presbyterian church of LaGrange. Rev. A. E. Dallas, pastor, officiated, and interment was in Hillview cemetery. Pallbearers were members of the local post of the American Legion, of which he was a member.

The paralyzing current, with a voltage of 122, caused by proximity of a transformer in the street, electrocuted Mr. Adams as he was working to rewire the home of C. L. Colburn, 201 South Lewis street, the wiring of which the city had condemned. He had completed his work with the exception of installing one basement receptacle. He was killed while cutting a wire which led to this outlet. A check of the wiring revealed that the wire by which Mr. Adams was killed should not have been carrying a current except for the fact that in making connections into the house from the street the electrician had created what is known as a "reverse ground."

A native of Chambers county, Ala., Mr. Adams had lived here since the age of 4. He was with the A. E. F. during the World War and saw active service in France, having been wounded once.

Mr. Adams is survived by his wife; two stepsons, W. Griggs Collins and Emmett H. Collins; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Adams, all of LaGrange; three brothers, and seven sisters.

VANDERBILT WIDOW RECEIVING INCOME OF ONLY $1,400 A YEAR

NEW YORK, June 13.—(P)—The socially prominent widow of the late Reginald Vanderbilt now has an income of only $1,400 a year, it was disclosed today by George W. Wickersham, guardian for her 9-year-old daughter, Gloria Laura Morgan Vanderbilt.

It had been assumed when the Vanderbilt will was probated in 1925 that "the entire residuary estate" left to Mrs. Vanderbilt after a trust fund was provided for the child was to be paid, but the total was only about $100,000.

Wickersham made the disclosure in asking surrogate's court to grant a continuance of the $4,000 monthly allowance for the support of the child. The petition was granted.

The trust fund for the child was worth $2,734,137 last December 31. It produced in 1931 an income of $113,678.

DETROIT, June 13.—(P)—Showing his disregard for the surgeon's knife, a 92-year-old Civil War veteran sat up in bed and aided his operation a few minutes after an operation had been performed in an effort to save his life.

He is Alexander W. Blain, one of the pioneer landscape engineers of the country. His son, Dr. Alexander W. Blain, was with him during the operation, which was performed by Dr. J. G. Downer. The operation on the abdomen was performed under a local anesthetic.

He kidded the nurses during the operation, the son said. "After it was all over, he asked for a cigar and smoked it."

Despite his refusal to become alarmed over the operation, Blain is in a serious condition, due to his advanced age, the son said.

EDMONTON, Alta., June 13.—(P)—A grim arctic tragedy which cost the lives of three persons and the wounding of a fourth today was recalled in supreme court when application was made for letters of administration of the estate of Albert Johnson, a trapper who held mounted police at bay for weeks.

The amount involved is $2,937, claimed by Mrs. Myrtle Marie Stephens, who alleges she is the lawful widow, and that the dead trapper's name is at Stephens, not Johnson.

The trapper was shot by "mounties" who had pursued him in one of the most colorful manhunts of the north, until after he had killed two police and wounded another.

JACKSON ASSAILS CLAIMS OF SHOUSE

Kansan Mentioned for "Consideration," Not Nomination, He Avers.

CONCORD, N. H., June 13.—The name of Joseph Shouse was mentioned for "consideration" as permanent chairman of the democratic national convention merely as a courtesy in recognition of his services, and not as an official nomination by the subcommittee on arrangements, it was emphasized today by Robert Jackson, secretary of the democratic national committee.

In an effort to clarify the perplexing situation created when Shouse publicly mentioned that the subcommittee of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jackson made public the reasons which motivated the subcommittee's brief resolution "commending" the national executive chairman.

to approve a permanent convention chairman. That matter, he explained, is only in the jurisdiction of the convention itself.

"When the subcommittee met," Jackson said, "it was found there was a contest for the position of temporary chairman between the supporters of Senator Barkley, of Kentucky, who was the candidate of the friends of Governor Roosevelt, and a group who favored Mr. Shouse.

Urged Postponement.

"Feeling that the defeat of either candidate inevitably would lead to misconstruction when the appointment of a temporary chairman came up for consideration, without consultation with anyone I moved that it be laid upon the table until there could be opportunity to discuss the possibility of choosing Senator Barkley without at the same time seeming unkind to the valuable services Mr. Shouse had rendered to the party."

In the conference that followed, Jackson added, someone proposed that the regular order of business of the convention be so amended as to permit Shouse immediately after the call to order by the chairman of the national committee to present a report on his (Shouse's) activities as chairman of the executive committee.

"This suggestion," Jackson pointed out, "was rejected by Mr. Shouse. Governor Byrd then suggested that Senator Barkley be named temporary chairman and Mr. Shouse recommended for permanent chairman. When this suggestion, at the instance of Mr. Shouse, was communicated to Governor Roosevelt over the telephone by Mr. Farley, the governor immediately called attention to the fact that the proposed action was without precedent and beyond the power of the national committee, since the selection of the permanent officers of the convention is a prerogative of the convention itself. He stated he had no right or desire to interfere with the decision of the subcommittee, but felt strongly that the subcommittee, in the wording of any resolution, should make it perfectly clear that it recognized it had right to recommend for any position except that of temporary chairman."

"The proposed form of resolution was read to Governor Roosevelt. He

4 Horsemen of Bridge Name Captain for 1932

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—P. Hal Sims today was announced as captain for 1932 of the four horsemen, championship contract bridge team, which recently issued a challenge to bridge players of the country.

His election was made public in a statement by the team—Sims, Willard S. Karn, David Burnstine and Howard Schenken, who replaced Oswald Jacoby—that scores of offers to meet the horsemen had been received.

One challenge was from a Cavendish Club team comprised of Raymond Balle, Harold S. Vanderbilt, John Matthews, Walter Malow and Sherman Stearns, all star players.

stated if the subcommittee wished to recognize Mr. Shouse's services through the proposed resolution, he would not, of course, do anything to stand in the way. He added, however, that since the contemplated action was outside our province, it could have no binding effect upon the committee on permanent organization or upon the delegates themselves. Governor Byrd and I together communicated the substance of this conversation to Mr. Shouse.

The resolution referred to read as follows:

"Resolved, that the committee on arrangements commend to the permanent committee on organization of the democratic national convention for consideration as permanent chairman of the convention the name of Honorable Joseph Shouse, of Kansas."

The resolution, it was made clear, will be reported to the full national committee before the first meeting of the convention and will have to be passed or rejected by it. If the national committee should adopt it, the paper then will go to the permanent committee on organization, which, if it adopts the "commendation," will send the resolution on to the whole national convention for adoption or rejection.

To Open Convention

EVANGELINE BOOTH.

NEW YORK, June 13.—(UP)—Evangeline Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, announced today that she has accepted an invitation to offer the invocation at the opening June 27 of the democratic national convention in Chicago.

She was asked to take part in the convention by a group of women delegates, headed by Mrs. Nellie Faylo Kloss and Miss Elizabeth Marbury.

"The Salvation Army knows no political belief," Miss Booth said, "as it knows no race, creed or color. I consider the democratic national convention's invitation a compliment to the Salvation Army for its consistent work among all classes of the nation. It is also a tribute to women and the position they have won for themselves in national affairs."

Simmons To Back Senator Morrison

RALEIGH, N. C., June 13.—(AP)—Furnifold M. Simmons, for 30 years senator from North Carolina, defeated for renomination in 1930 by J. W. Bailey, who had the support of former Governor C. B. Brevard, announced tonight that he would support Morrison, now senator, for renomination in a second primary against Robert Reynolds, Asheville anti-prohibitionist.

Morrison and Simmons after almost half a century of political comradeship split bitterly in 1928 when Simmons led the anti-Smith campaign which gave North Carolina's vote to a republican president for the first time in 30 years.

In a letter to J. H. Canady, of Winston, who had made inquiry, the man who once practically dominated North Carolina said he, according to the present time to subordinate personal likes and dislikes to the public welfare, and declared he considered Morrison better qualified than Reynolds to represent the state in the senate.

Reynolds led Morrison, who was appointed after the death of L. S. Overman, by approximately 15,000 votes for the long term nomination in the first primary, and by 12,000 for the short term from November until March, the balance of Overman's unexpired term.

DEMOCRATS SIGN PLEDGE FOR UNITY

Candidates Join in Declaration of Support of Ultimate Nominee.

Davis, of New York; Owen D. Young, of New York, and Joseph Shouse, executive director of the democratic national committee.

Signed By Georgians.

Senator Walter F. George and Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. were the two signers from Georgia.

Describing their message as one of "pure politics," the 61 signers base their appeal upon the imperative financial need for the party to be prepared financially to launch a winning presidential campaign as soon as the convention adjourns. Unless this is done, they state, the support given by all members of the party organization to the ultimate presidential choice "in no fashion can be as effective as by seeing to it that there is no default in our personal obligations to the party."

"Now, when neither candidate nor platform is known, when neither gratification at the selection of an individual nor disappointment at the defeat of others can have its influence, is the time of all times for members of the organization to display their party patriotism," the leaders declare. "Our appeal today is not to elect the election of this or that man. It is for the progress and success of the party. With no taint of factionalism, no thought of feuds, but merely that democratic success should be accomplished, each of us must give in accordance with his means."

Need of Campaign.

"Granted that the sentiment of the country is adverse to the Hoover administration because of its failure adequately to meet the responsibilities of the situation for which, to some extent at least, it is responsible; admitted that the candidates we are about to name at Chicago will be capable, honest, sincere and forceful, yet the facts remain that we require more than the justice of our cause to insure victory in November," the leaders point out earlier in their message.

"Money is going to be required to carry on the work of organization and to distribute literature that will effectively counterbalance the flood of administration propaganda that will be put forth to bring about the reelection of President Hoover."

Substantiating the need for democratic financial preparedness, according to the measure, are the fact that the republicans have been "superbly entrenched" in power for the last 12 years and that "financial interests" which have "reaped profit out of the administration's tariff bill will, when the time comes, see that our opponents have an adequate campaign chest." These "interests," according to the leaders, "are not likely to surrender their position of favoritism."

Hoover Support.

Referring to the thousands of officeholders on the federal pay rolls, the 61 signers of the appeal declare that "this group has not only a vital interest in keeping Mr. Hoover in office, but through family and friendship constitutes no small army in the battle of votes that will determine the outcome of the November elections."

Overcoming the "inferiority" of the party, the statement continues, "Glowing as our hopes are today, we cannot assure of victory unless we work forth the extreme efforts of which we are capable from now until election day. Nor should it be lost sight of the fact that a victory at this juncture today may be worth many dollars later on. We have the advantage of the attack. The country is swinging with us, but that swing might be checked if there is any slowing up of our campaign."

Successful completion of the $1,500,000 necessary fund will, according to the leaders, accomplish the following objectives: "Pay off the democratic debt; discharge the obligations consequent on the activities of last year's executive committee whose work during the past three years has placed the party in the position of advantage and confidence; and enables us to look forward today to the restoration of the government to those whose political code is constituted by the principles of Jefferson."

ROOSEVELT DENIES REPORT OF PLAN TO VISIT CHICAGO

ALBANY, N. Y., June 13.—(AP)—Governor Roosevelt tonight sought to discourage reports from Chicago that he would make a dramatic appearance in the thick of the democratic convention there late this month.

Newspapermen for the second day pressed him for a reply to stories concerning his reported change in plans to provide for a visit to the convention battle. He answered with vigor:

"I'm not going to make any statement in answer to the dozens of unfounded rumors that will appear every few minutes during the next few weeks."

It was known here, however, that the suite of hotel rooms reserved at Chicago two months ago for the New Yorker were being retained in the event some unforeseen crisis developed in the light of Roosevelt's backers to nominate him for the presidency.

Mr. Roosevelt's date book for June contains engagements in this state carrying him well past the week of the democratic convention.

Democrats of Texas To Hold Referendum

AUSTIN, Texas, June 13.—(AP)—The Texas state democratic executive committee voted today to refer to participants in the July party state primary the question of asking congress to submit a proposal to repeal the 18th amendment.

Offered by Carl Estes, of Tyler, Texas, the proposition was accepted by a vote of 16 to 13. It was decided to submit the plan in ballots separate from those carrying the names of candidates.

The democratic state convention, which met at Houston recently, petitioned congress to submit the question of repeal of the amendment to the various states.

The state republican organization has taken no action so far on the prohibition question.

Aylesworth Warns Of Film Bankruptcy

HOLLYWOOD, June 13.—(UP)—The billion-dollar motion picture industry faces bankruptcy within 90 days unless drastic measures are introduced to save it, Merlin H. Aylesworth, president of R-K-O and the National Broadcasting Company, warned fellow producers tonight.

The first company that "sacrifices its pride" and applies for receivership will find every other major studio following, he declared.

Financiers have refused to continue supplying funds for producing companies, Aylesworth said. He admitted the "drastic measures" necessary to keep the companies solvent have not been figured out.

"Ridiculously large salaries," paid to stars and executives have sapped the strength of film companies, but receiverships would repudiate many of these contracts, according to Aylesworth.

The survey predicted that sales of cotton fabric men's clothing would be from 20 to 100 per cent in advance of last year.

IMPROVED RAILWAY SERVICE

CENTRAL OF GEORGIA

The railway industry has not permitted its service to the public to deteriorate during the current period of adversity.

On the contrary freight is being transported more quickly than ever before, and passenger service shows improvement in both comfort and safety.

The public benefits by the expedited movement of freight, which is required under prevailing conditions.

Dealers desire to buy in limited quantities and to renew their stocks frequently. This is made possible by the quick delivery the railroads are giving this year.

Freight and passenger trains have in many instances been combined, thus speeding up the movement of freight.

Freight service by rail is, as always, dependable under all conditions, and is now, in spite of decreased volume, quicker than ever.

The greatest bargains in the history of transportation are offered to travelers by rail.

The lowest rates ever made are available for numerous excursions. For example, on June 18th the Central of Georgia will sell tickets with an eight-day limit, at the rate of one cent per mile traveled to and from any points on the entire system.

In many cases the same rates apply on other railroads, so that a traveler may visit almost any point in the Southeast at about one-fourth the usual fare.

Those who ship and travel by rail are assured of safe, courteous, prompt and dependable transportation.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

President and General Manager.

Following my check

THE other day I was busy with check book paying some bills. To the extent of my funds it was a simple matter—look at the bill, write a check, mail it, and the transaction was closed, until the canceled check came back as a legal receipt.

The next morning I came down to the bank and said—"I am 'The Man-on-the-Street.' Yesterday I paid some bills by check. Let me follow one of those checks this morning. I want to see what happens to it when it comes to the bank."

And this is what happens to checks:

I know now why I must carry a good average balance in my checking account. If I carry $100.00 and the bank earns 6% on my balance, they get only fifty cents a month to pay them for all this service, plus the check books, pass books and monthly statements which they furnish to me.

NOW SCIENCE TELLS
WHY BRAN IS SO
GOOD FOR HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Has
"Bulk" and Vitamin B;
Also Healthful Iron

By using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, millions of people have overcome common constipation, and the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so frequently result.

New laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN supplies two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently it eases the intestines of wastes.

Further experiments prove ALL-BRAN provides twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount of weight of beef liver.

Eat this delicious cereal and avoid pills and drugs. They cause artificial action, and often lead to harmful habits.

Try two tablespoonsful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily—sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN has a delicious, nutty flavor. Enjoy as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in making fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. Recipes on all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Francis Mitchell played a modern composition written in classic form, "Allegretto," by Albert, which contrasted with the first movement of Mozart's "Sonata in A Minor."

Mrs. J. K. Douglas played Prokofiev's "Gavotte," showing that extremely modern harmonies in an old classic dance form can be interestingly played.

Tom Brumby gave a brilliant rendition of "Turkish March," Beethoven Rubinstein, followed by the first movement of the Brahms "Sonata in F Minor," demonstrating dramatic vigor.

Mrs. Edward Van Winkle Jr. played "Caprice," by Scarlatti, with all the clarity that the old classics demand. The last number of the program was "Sonata in D Flat Major," followed by another modern Gavotte by Max Hamour.

Miss McDowell played the first movement of the "Appassionata Sonata," Beethoven, with an interpretation intermingling passionate tumult with tender pathos. J. T. Pittman played Cesar Franck's "Prelude, Choral and Fugue," with a powerful command of context and technique.

The last number of the program was the Grieg concerto, with Miss Elizabeth Sheldon playing the first movement in a manner that showed remarkable technique and musicianship for one of her years. Miss Irene Left, which played the last two movements with an excellence of tonal beauty.

Mr. Hodgson played the orchestral accompaniment at the second piano. The writer's contribution was the last two movements of Beethoven's "Sonata in A Flat Major," the "Funeral March" and "Rondo."

Mrs. Edward Van Winkle Jr. acted as hostess, serving tea and cakes following the program.

TARZAN AND THE ANT MEN No. 122

Tarzan was pushed roughly toward the hut of the witch doctor. Obebe was there, as he saw after the guards had opened a way through the thicket, and he stood beside the fire in the center of the circle. The fire was just large enough to keep two iron rods red-hot.

"Where is Uhha, my daughter?" demanded the witch doctor. The River Devil did not answer. Not once had he spoken since Klamis had captured him, and he stood beside the fire in the center of the circle. The fire was just large enough to keep two iron rods red-hot.

"You will answer me now!" screamed the witch doctor, and stooping, he seized a red-hot iron. A day's march to the south, a sense of depression and sorrow hovered over the jungles of Tarzan, Lord Greystoke. The doctor came to the home of the ape-man.

There were three—the famous London surgeon, Lady Greystoke and Flora Hawkes, her maid. The patient sat in a wheel-chair and looked up at them blankly as they entered. "Don't you know me, John?" asked Lady Jane. "He does not know any of us," Korak said.

WILLIAM C. REDFIELD PASSES IN BROOKLYN

Secretary of Commerce in Wilson's Cabinet Was 73 Years Old.

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce during the Wilson administration, died at his Brooklyn home today. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Redfield was known as a "businessman's legislator" because he advocated the application to government of some principles which he championed in business. He entered congress in 1911 with the tariff a dominant issue and he came to be regarded as one of the experts on the subject in the house. He had been for many years a manufacturer of steel products.

He held a high protective tariff to be unneeded, since, he said, the American worker's skill more than com-

Radio Waves To Carry Convention to Senate

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—The senate couldn't go to the convention, so the convention is to be brought to the senate—by radio.

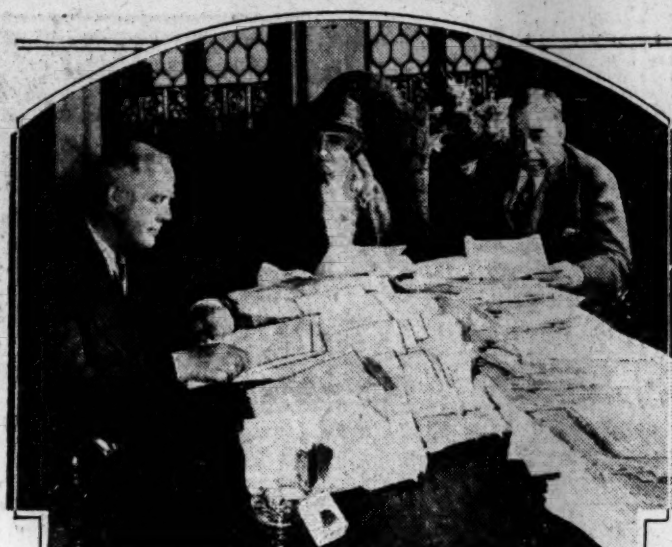

A democratic senator—Dill, of Washington—arranged today for installation of a big receiving set in a room just off the senate chamber to enable members to hear the broadcast of the republican national convention, opening tomorrow.

He was secretary of commerce from 1913 until 1919, when he resigned to return to business as vice president of the War Twisting-in Machine Company and a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. As secretary of commerce he enlarged and reorganized the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, and he was active during the war in the trade board, the bureau of standards and the council of national defense. He was always a staunch advocate of a large navy for the protection of American business interests.

He was born in Albany on June 18, 1858.

His first excursion into politics came in 1890, when he made an unsuccessful race for congress.

Levy on War Profits Approved by Mills

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Supporting the principle that profits made out of war should be brought into the treasury, Secretary Mills today informed the senate it did not seem possible to prepare a measure designed for that purpose in advance of a possible combat.

The secretary's comment was in reply to a senate resolution asking his opinion on the war policy commission's recommendations for a levy of 95 per cent on war profits.

As for a 95 per cent tax, Mills said:

"Where the rate of tax is moderate, errors in determination do not have vital consequences and average out over the years. If, however, an attempt is made to take 95 per cent of the war profits through current tax collections, inevitable inaccuracies in the calculation of such profits and taxes might lead to disastrous results."

The ideal war income tax, Mills said, "would bring into the treasury the entire amount of profits due to the war."

BLOCK HITS 'ANALYSIS' OF SEABURY CHARGES

Publisher Asks Statement to Roosevelt Be Amended
by Counsel.

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—An assertion that Samuel Seabury's "analysis" of the Mayor Walker testimony contained "wholly unwarranted inferences" with respect to his dealings with the mayor was made tonight by Paul Block, the publisher.

He asked the counsel to the Ho-stader legislative committee investigating Walker's city administration to "amend your statement to Governor Roosevelt" in so far as this inference to inaccuracy.

Coincident with Block's announcement, a new set of charges against "Jimmie" Walker was made public by the "no dissent" party, the group of democratic business and professional men. Their petition to the governor asked for the mayor's removal for misconduct and incompetence in office, even though your excellency should find, with respect to other facts before you, that there is no sufficient proof of official or personal dishonesty on the part of Mayor Walker while in office."

Block, who explained in public hearing that Mayor Walker drew nearly $250,000 from a point brokerage account he opened for himself and Walker after a year's salary, told Seabury "you should know that my joint account with James J. Walker was opened and conducted solely because of my many years' friendship with him as an individual, and not as mayor of New York."

"You should know that I expected and received no favors from the mayor or the city administration, and that any inference that my motives were for personal profit is unwarranted, unjustified and untrue."

"EMINENT COUNSEL" NAMED TO ASSIST ROOSEVELT
ALBANY, N. Y., June 13.—(AP)—Martin Conboy, a leader of New York city's bar, and John E. Black, former democratic supreme court justice from Poughkeepsie, were named tonight by Governor Roosevelt to assist him in "eminent counsel" in his official charges against Mayor James J. Walker.

The duty of the two men, the democratic governor made plain, was not to recommend any ultimate disposition of the charges brought against the mayor but to assist him as experts on testimony, 500,000 words of which were put on the governor's desk by Samuel Seabury after he had examined the Tammany Hall official.

Time To Advertise, Floridians Are Told

"Now is the time, at the low ebb of business, for advertising and merchandising ideas to be developed," Mr. Byrnes said. "Far-seeing advertising men are looking forward to a turn toward better business, and are planning their advertising campaigns to anticipate that turn. Now is the time to plan methods of helping small manufacturers to increase their volume and stimulate their growth."
